Chouteau multiplier on lands

Real estate assessments in 17 Madison County townships, including Chouteau in the Quad-City area, have been increased by 15 per cent under order of the Madison County Board of Review to state off a state multiplying factor.

The order was issued last week after officials of the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs informed county assessing officials that an increase of $47 million in the county's total assessment had received multipliers by the Board of Review. Granite City received a multiplier of 1.08, which increases assessments by 8 per cent, while Edwardsville and Wood River Township valuations received a multiplier of 1.10, or a 10 per cent increase in the total value.

James Barton, Madison County supervisor of assessments, said multipliers were imposed on the 20 townships to bring assessments to a state-required level of 31.34 per cent of market value. Market value is determined by a check of real estate sales throughout the state.

Barton told the Press-Record today that the 15 per cent increase in Chouteau Township applies only to lands and improvements on those lands, and does not include property classified as "lots" which primarily includes subdivided property.

He said that the multiplying factor will increase total real estate assessments of $10,800,000 on affected property in Chouteau Township by $1,620,000.

Barton said no multiplying factors will be extended for Venice, Nareeki, Collinsville and Alton Townships because the assessment ratios in these townships already exceeded the required 31.34 per cent.

Spirited competition has developed for tomorrow's Madison city election, in which 12 are running for eight municipal offices.

There also are eight candidates seeking seven Venice city offices, and three vying for two Granite City park positions. Three Pontoon Beach village candidates are unopposed in Tuesday's balloting.

Polling places in the four taxing districts will be open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. Locations of the polls are given on Page 20 of today's issue.

Although Venice Mayor William M. Ebersoldt is unopposed for re-election tomorrow, the office of mayor of Madison is being sought by both two-term Mayor Mike Sasyk, a land developer, and by Miss Patti A. Moss, a registered nurse. Mayor Sasyk heads the Better Government Party ticket, which also includes City Treasurer Hilbert Hoekstra.

Opposing Hoekstra is James Riskovsky, operator of an automotive engineering firm. Unopposed for re-election is City Clerk John N. Bellocchi, assistant vice-president of the First National Bank in Madison. Better Government Party aldermanic candidates include retiring Police Chief Frank Dutko in the Second Ward and Thomas S. Gordon in the Third Ward. Dutko's opponents are Michael Bero and Stanley Gasho. Gordon is unopposed, his original opponent having withdrawn from the ballot.

Unopposed incumbent City Council members are Alderman R. Donald Reeves of the First Ward, Alderman Christ Costoff of the Fourth Ward and Alderman Booker T. Walton of the Fifth Ward. Granite City Park District commissioner candidates tomorrow are President Henry Gabriel and Vice-President Barry Loman, incumbent board members, and John "Jeff" Worthen. Gabriel is an architect. Loman is vice-president of the Granite City Trust and Savings Bank and Worthen is a bricklayer.

Dutko responds to allegations

Frank Dutko, who is retiring as Madison police chief at the end of this month, responded during the weekend to allegations by a patrolman who has resigned from the department.

"As a police officer for 27 years and chief for the past seven years, I think the people of Madison deserve a statement from me in reference to the Officer Pete Kostick incident," Dutko commented.

He emphasized that the policeman was not dismissed but insisted on resigning. Even if there was a personal conflict, it need not have prompted a resignation, since the chief is retiring soon, Dutko told the Press-Record.

Chief Dutko added, "I feel this was a deliberate attempt to embarrass me as the chief and other city officials with me. The former officer, I acknowledge, did do his job as a police officer during the closing law ordinance."

"I arrived at about 1:45 a.m. April 6 (night of April 5) with my wife. We had just left a political celebration with the intention of talking to the

Groundbreaking next week for steel fabricating plant

Ground-breaking ceremonies will be held and construction will start Monday, April 25, at the Maeras Industrial Park for a new $2 million facility of the Southwestern Steel Supply Co. of St. Louis.

Bonds totaling $2 million dollars were sold by the city Friday to three area banks.

The First National Bank in Madison purchased $100,000, the First Granite City National Bank, $400,000, and the Mercantile Bank of St. Louis bought were sold by the company. Leo Wolf Co. will build the plant on eight acres of land in the Maeras Industrial Park in Madison.

$1½ million of the issue. Bonds

Construction and preparations to begin operations are expected to take five to six months.

When in operation, the specialized steel fabricating operation will employ about 65 persons.

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk and members of the City Council have been negotiating with the company for the past several months.

Preston M. Green is the president of Southwest Steel Supply Co. and his son, Stephen A. Green is vice-president.

The company offices are located at 3401 Morganford Road, St. Louis.

According to Mayor Sasyk, the company has agreed to give Madison residents first preference at the new jobs when the plant opens.

Details of another plant to open in the Maeras Industrial Park will be completed within the next few weeks, according to Mayor Sasyk.

Senior hot line—anti-crime tactics

(Written under the auspices of Lieutenant Governor O'Neal)

Considering the ratio of senior citizens to the rest of the population, a national statistic stating that 14 per cent of the crimes in the country involve the elderly as victims—brings into focus a situation that is alarming if not intolerable.

Seniors who think ahead and work with the police department in crime prevention can help lower that ratio.

Officers Nick Gram and Bill Whitney of the Belleville Police Department made some helpful suggestions.

—Purse snatchers and pickpockets can be outsmarted. When in a crowd, move your wallet to an inside pocket, and clutch your handbag close to you.

Place a pocket comb in the wallet. The teeth of the comb will make it difficult to remove the wallet from a pocket.

Do not carry a purse by the straps, dangling, as an easy target. It is safer to put your money, credit cards and check book in an inside pocket.

Carry the purse upside down; if grabbed, the contents will spill, thereby foiling an attempt.

—Cooperate with your banker. Have your Social Security check deposited directly into your checking account; it is safer.

Do not withdraw your savings at a cashier's suggestion. If anyone presents himself as a bank examiner, FBI agent, police officer, detective or bank official and asks you to withdraw money, check with the police department or your banker and have them investigate the situation for you.

Do not keep large amounts of money in a cookie jar or buried in the back yard.

—Home security suggestions: Have a phone by your bed for quick contact to the outside if

ELECT
JIM RISKOVSKY
CITY TREASURER
APRIL 19, 1977

Dear Citizens of Madison:

I would like to take this final opportunity to urge all registered voters to cast their ballots Tuesday, April 19, 1977, and elect for City Treasurer the best man they feel will be able to help the betterment of our community.

I want to be your new City Treasurer and want to be able to work for you... the people! I feel it is time to get some new blood and new ideas in our City and also feel it is time to give the young people a chance to get involved and active.

I believe in the City of Madison because this is my hometown. I am a life-long resident and have invested my entire livelihood here. Two years ago, I constructed a new business on 1300 State Street. This building could have been constructed in Granite City or Pontoon Beach where shopping centers are going up every day and the population increasing. I also could have bought my home in another surrounding city, but I felt chose to buy at 718 Iowa.

By getting involved in our city government, I not only will be able to protect my investments but years as well. If elected City Treasurer, I will be aware of how your tax dollars are being spent. If they are being misappropriated I will be able to voice my opinion and keep you informed as a taxpayer and citizen of Madison, of any discrepancies.

I feel the only way we are going to bring new life into our City is by putting into office people who are young, ambitious and aggressive and people who have the determination to make changes. We also need people who can think for themselves, people who are not afraid to speak in fear of losing their jobs and people who are hard workers and not just talkers.

I am running as an independent ballot and in no way am I affiliated with any political party or organization. My campaign has been solely supported by myself. As I have said, I am an "independent thinker" and an "independent doer." I pledge to get the job done!

Should I be elected Madison's City Treasurer, I hope to be able to get the people involved and interested in our community. I enjoy helping others and get personal satisfaction from being able to serve my community.

Your consideration and support will be greatly appreciated on April 19.

THANK YOU,
JIM RISKOVSKY Candidate for CITY TREASURER

Student fees are adjusted

The Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees approved here Thursday an adjustment in student fees and a transfer of funds to balance deficits in the operating budget of the University Center at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The board approved an increase in the University Center fee, with corresponding decreases in the Student Welfare and Recreational Facility (SWRF) Building Trust Fund fee, the Resident Center fee and the Open University Program fee, effective in the fall quarter. University officers said no net increase in student fees will result.

In addition, the board approved transfer of $227,000 from the SWRF Building Trust Fund to be applied to operational expenses of the University Center during this fiscal year.

University officers explained that the 1976-77 fiscal year, the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE) incorporated in the SUE budget a one-third reduction in tuition retention funds for funded debt enterprises.

This reduction amounted to more than $200,000 for the University Center.

Efforts by the Board of Trustees, the university administration and students were unsuccessful in preventing the reduction, but they have indicated they will seek a reversal of the action by the IBHE in the budget process for the next fiscal year.

Officers said a current deficit of $227,000 must be resolved, and an agreement was reached to utilize SWRF funds and to provide for future operating expenses of the Center without an overall increase in student fees.

For fulltime students, the University Center fee will be increased $9 per quarter, from $10 to $19, and the SWRF fee will be reduced $9 per quarter, from $15 to $6.

There also are $9 per quarter decreases in the Resident Center fee and Open University Program fee for students enrolled in these programs. The fee changes are prorated for assessment rate required by the state this year.

Multiplier

Under a state law passed two years ago, counties throughout the state are required to adjust all assessments to a ratio of 33.3 per cent of market value by 1977. The Madison County review board raised assessments in 1975 for townships with lower ratios and is making the additional adjustments this year to bring the county's total assessment ratio to the 31.34 per cent level.

Barton pointed out that higher ratios of market value on assessments in the 20 townships affected by county multipliers will produce approximately $47 million needed to meet state criteria and therefore state of a multiplying factor of 1.05 which the state announced it would apply against Madison County if the 31.34 per cent ratio was not met.

The Board of Review, which includes Robert Coultas and Gilbert Heil, and Barton as clerk, announced that a public hearing on the multiplying factors imposed on the 17 townships will be held Tuesday, April 19, at 10 a.m. in the County Board room at the courthouse in Edwardsville.

Interested persons will be given an opportunity at that time to be heard on the proposed changes, Barton said.

As a result of the multiplier mandate by the county, a public meeting to discuss the assessment actions has been called for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the gymnasium at the Livingston High School.

The meeting has been arranged by the Illinois Public Action Council, a federation of citizen organizations with offices in Champaign and Chicago.

John Castle, director of the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs which administers the statewide assessment program, is to attend the meeting to answer questions concerning the multiplier and its application to local valuations.

Fourteen of the townships for which 1.15 multipliers were set by the review board, includes Helvetia, Saline, Leef, New Douglas, St. Jacob, Marine, Alhambra, Olive, Jarvis, Pin Oak, Hamel, Omphughen, Fort Russell and Moro.

The State Multiplier was set for Chouteau, Foster and Godfrey Townships to apply to lands and land improvements, but not to property classified as lots.

Barton said that the Madison County property valuation had been set at $1,094,000,000, but when an abstract of the valuation was sent to the state revenue department state officials contended the figure represented 95 per cent of the total assessment required on the basis of a 31.34 per cent sales ratio.

It was on that basis that state officials proposed a 1.05 multiplier for Madison County as a whole. Barton said a state multiplier, had one been necessary, would have applied to all property — both real and personal — thus increasing property values far more than local township multipliers which are applied only to real estate.

In addition, he noted, a state multiplier would have been highly unfair to taxpayers of those townships where the assessment ratio already exceeded the proposed 31.34 per cent. A state multiplier would have affected those townships as well as the others in the county, he said.

Madison county rural areas where assessment ratios were low before the adjustment began have not fared badly, Barton said, noting that much higher increases have been given in other counties. In St. Clair County, for example, some multipliers as high as 2.70 have been imposed on some townships, he said.

Dear Citizens of Madison: I would like to take this final opportunity to urge all registered voters to cast their ballots Tuesday, April 19, 1977, and elect for City Treasurer the best man they feel will be able to help the betterment of our community.

I want to be your new City Treasurer and want to be able to work for you... the people! I feel it's time to get some new blood and new ideas. First the City and also feel it's time to give the young people a chance to get involved and active.

I believe in the City of Madison because this is my hometown. I am a life-long resident and have invested my entire livelihood here. Two years ago, I constructed a new business on 1300 State Street. This building could have been constructed in Granite City or Pontoon Beach where shopping centers are going up everywhere and the population increasing. I also could have bought my home in another surrounding city, but instead chose to buy at 714 Iowa.

By getting involved in our city government, I not only will be able to protect my investments but yours as well. If elected City Treasurer, I will be aware of how your tax dollars are being spent. If they are being misappropriated I will be able to voice my opinion and keep you informed, as a taxpayer and citizen of Madison, of any discrepancies.

I feel the only way we are going to bring new life into our City is by putting into office people who are young, ambitious and aggressive and people who have the determination to make changes. We also need people who can think for themselves, people who are not afraid to speak in fear of losing their jobs and people who are hard workers and don't just talk.

I am running on an independent ballot and in no way am I affiliated with any political party or organization. My campaign has been solely supported by myself. As I have said, I am an "independent thinker" and an "independent doer". I pledge to get the job done!

Should I be elected Madison's City Treasurer, I hope to be able to get the people involved and interested in our community. I enjoy helping others and get personal satisfaction from being able to serve my community.

Your consideration and support will be greatly appreciated on April 19.

THANK YOU, JIM RISKOVSKY Candidate for CITY TREASURER

Karen L. Corzilius and Robert Truman are wed

Miss Karen Leigh Corzilius, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Corzilius, 2100 Lindell Blvd., and Robert Michael Truman, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Truman, of Effingham, Ill., exchanged wedding vows in an afternoon ceremony on March 26, at the Nameoki United Presbyterian Church.

Floral arrangements of carnations and delphiniums placed near the altar and burning tapers in pew candles, provided the setting for the double ring service performed at 1 o'clock by the Rev. Don F. Pierson.

Nuptial selections were furnished by Miss E. Marie Mills, soloist and Mrs. Elizabeth Nicol, organist.

Escorted down the white carpeted aisle and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length white organza gown designed with a molded bodice featuring a v-neckline lavishly appliqued with Venise lace, etched with pearls.

Lace appliques were repeated on the long full sheer sleeves and a tiny lace edging marked the cuffs.

Her slightly full skirt fell softly into a chapel train and was bordered with a decorative lace.

She wore a lace Juliet cap to secure a shoulder length veil of bridal illusion also edged with scallop lace. Her cascade bouquet was an arrangement of silk blue and white iris, freesia, baby's breath and silk ivy.

Maid of honor Miss Kandy Klueber chose a royal blue polyester Empire style dress fashioned with softly flowing sleeves.

The bridesmaids, Misses Constance and Rebecca Corzilius, sisters of the bride, selected pastel blue gowns.

designed identical to the honor attendant.

They held cascade bouquets of blue silk delphiniums, dark blue anemone, baby's breath and ivy.

The groom chose Lyle Hill of Sparta, Ill., as his best man. Jerry Brugato and James Wilson served as groomsmen, and James Lustin and David Truman, a brother of the groom seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Corzilius appeared in a silk crepe peach print dress featuring a high neckline and long trumpet sleeves. Her flowers were an arrangement of silk carnations and roses in a peach hue.

The groom's mother, Mrs. Truman, was attired in a silk crepe peach print dress featuring a high neckline and long trumpet sleeves. Her flowers were an arrangement of silk carnations and roses in a peach hue.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall immediately following the service and an evening reception was hosted at the Elk's Club in Effingham, Ill.

Out of town guests and members of the wedding party were entertained at the home of the bride's parents.

A Granite City High School graduate, the bride also graduated from Monticello College and the University of Illinois in 1973. She is employed as Customer Relations Coordinator for World Color Press in Effingham.

The groom attended Southern Illinois University at Carbondale and graduated from Eastern Illinois University. He also is working at World Color Press in the production department.

They are now residing in Effingham following a wedding trip to New Orleans, La.

Baby-sitting service will be provided for participants with young children, she said.

All women in the community are invited to attend, Mrs. Pennell stressed.

Hearings on technical and vocational education

Public hearings on a five-year state plan for adult, vocational and technical education in Illinois during 1978-82 will be held this week in Wheaton, Springfield and Mt. Vernon. Purpose of the hearings, according to State School Superintendent Joseph M. Cronin, is to give employers, parents, concerned educators, students and the general public an opportunity to voice their opinions and concerns about the proposed directions of vocational education during the next five years. The State Board of Education then will vote on approving the statewide plan. Hearings will be held today at the DuPage County Building in Wheaton; April 20 at the Illinois Department of Transportation Building in Springfield; and April 22 at the Holiday Inn in Mt. Vernon. Time of the hearings is 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. "The five-year plan," Cronin explained, "assesses future needs for job skills in Illinois and sets out goals to be achieved by the end of the five-year period."

Illinois adult, vocational and technical education," he said, noting that previous plans had been drafted on a one-year basis.

He praised the multi-year plan as a step toward long-range planning and development for the state's adult and vocational education. Copies of the proposed state plan are available for review at area school district offices, community colleges and universities, the offices of superintendents of education service regions and the Illinois Office of Education, Springfield.

No pre-registration is necessary to testify at any of the three hearings. A copy of testimony must be submitted by each person testifying. A final version of the plan, incorporating suggestions of those testifying, will be submitted to the State Board of Education May 12 for approval prior to being sent to the U.S. Office of Education.

bartender in reference to his daughter's upcoming marriage."

Madison weekday tavern and club liquor sales have a 2 a.m. deadline.

"Upon my arrival before closing hours, inside were other city officials, discussing the election and prospects of good fishing. I was served a drink and joined their conversation," Dutko said.

"Later, the officer appeared and related to me that he had received a complaint that the Croatian Home was still open and numerous autos were parked around the building."

"He then proceeded to clear out the patrons—approximately seven people, including myself."

Dutko estimated the time of the dispatch to the officer at 2:15, about 15 minutes after the closing time. He did not recall any drinks served past 2 a.m.

"After my departure, unknown to me, he arrested the bartender," the chief continued.

"Why did he choose at this particular time to make an arrest? I feel that he has been the only Madison police officer supporting openly a non-city organization candidate."

"He could have been trying to use this opportunity for political gain. In a similar occurrence later that night elsewhere in Madison, patrons were sent home and there was no arrest."

"There has been a past practice where officers were called to remove patrons from taverns without incident. This time, the officer in using his policeman's discretion chose to try to embarrass myself and others."

"As his superior officer, I questioned his unusual action—after learning about another establishment being open and no arrest made that night."

"The officer chose to resign even after fellow officers and myself asked him to reconsider his decision."

"He has made statements to newspapers, radio and television accusing me and other officials. I regard such charges of special privilege as ridiculous."

The chief vowed sorrow that an individual was jailed overnight for the alleged closing hour violation. Dutko said arrests generally have been limited to violations that follow a warning.

$8,000 fire; suspect arson

Arson is suspected as the cause of a fire which caused about $8,000 damage to the home of Willie Joseph Ward, 2821 Myrtle Ave., Sunday night.

Firemen first were called at 11:45 p.m. Sunday and neighbors reported hearing two explosions and seeing two young men run from the house.

The fire appeared to have started in the dining room, spreading to the living room by the time firemen arrived. Firemen fought the blaze for one hour and 15 minutes.

At 7:45 a.m. today, they were called back to the house as smoke was observed coming from the eaves and they extinguished smoldering wood.

Trust bank seeks Herbert Halls

Information concerning the current whereabouts of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert (Euline) Hall, formerly of 2132 Edison Ave., and later of a Benton Street address, is being sought by the trust department at Granite City Trust and Savings Bank.

Robert J. Hildebrand, vice-president and trust officer, said Mr. and Mrs. Hall, or anyone knowing the couple's present address, are being asked the Hall's son, Murray Hall, a patient at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Roseburg, Oregon.

Hildebrand, conservator of Murray Hall's estate, said the parents moved from their last known address on Benton Street, probably two or three months ago, but still are believed to be residing in the Granite City area.

Mr. Murray Hall has been a patient at the Roseburg VA hospital for the past several years.

Beverly Ann Hall, formerly of 2109 Delmar Ave., a family member, also is asked to contact the bank officer.

Trojans win 12-school track meet at St. Paul

Madison High School attained a one-point victory over challenger Triad (St. Jacob-Troy-Marine) Saturday to capture the second annual St. Paul 12-school track and field invitational at Highland.

Coach Charles Steptoe's Trojan athletes scored 87 points, Triad 86, Dupu 77, Freeburg 68, Red Bud 51, Weslin of Trenton 45, Mater Dei of Breese and Waterloo 38 each, St. Paul 29, Okawville 18, Marissa eight and Marquette of Alton three.

"Triad moved up on us quickly in the final four events," recalls the Madison mentor.

"After the field events, Dupu was ahead of us by five (40-35) and after 14 events we had closed the gap to 63½-60."

Triad scored well in the final four events to give the Trojans a scare.

Ironically, the deciding event was the mile relay in which Madison had never been beaten until Freeburg finished three seconds ahead of Madison's time of 3:39.29.

The Madison squad was composed of Carl Hicks, Duane Bochantin, Mike Bartley and Ernest Davenport.

Explaining that the Trojans had an off-day in many events — especially Marcus White, a sophomore, who was recovering from illness — Steptoe believes his team might have won by 15 points otherwise.

Madison pointmakers included: two-mile relay — Gerry Brooks, Kevin Rogers, Cross, Davenport 1st (8:41.7 new school record); 440 relay — Bochantin, Sylvester Collins, James Heard, White 1st (46:12); 120 high hurdles — Ron Morris 3rd; 100 dash — White 3rd and Heard 5th; 440 run — Bartley 4th; 330 low hurdles — Morris 1st (41:73); 220 dash — Heard 3rd, White 5th.

Also, shot put — Jeff Thompson 5th; discus — Thompson 5th; long jump — Alfred Crawford 5th; triple jump — Crawford 3rd; and high jump — Rodney Williams and Collins tied for 5th.

On Saturday, Madison will attempt to successfully defend the title in the 16-school Red Bud invitational in what Steptoe believes could be a "rematch" between Madison and the Triad Knights.

Rites held for Mrs. Meek, 71

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Saturday at St. Paul United Church of Christ at Edwardsville for Mrs. Irma M. Meek, 71, of Collinsville, mother of Mrs. Jo Ann Spelver of Granite City.

Mrs. Meek died Thursday at the Hitz Memorial Home, Alhambra. Other survivors include two brothers and a sister.

Warfield shutout beats Flyers, 3-0

Warrior Eldon Warfield improved his record on the mound to four wins against no losses Thursday afternoon while pitching GCHS South to a 3-0 win over visiting East St. Louis Flyers.

East St. Louis collected five hits off Warfield and committed two errors while the Warriors pounded out eight hits and erred once.

Tom Henrich provided three hits, Paul Evans and Warfield two each and Joe Parente, one. Mike Clark walked and stole second in the second frame, followed by a walk to John Larkin. Parente then singled in a run.

Randy Smith walked in the third and crossed homeplate on a double by Evans.

In the sixth, Parente reached base on an error and Henrich tripped him home.

Sayers, others praise Madison High athletes

"This fine basketball team has brought glory to our city by overcoming many obstacles throughout the 1976-77 season enroute to capturing the state championship," said Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk, who was among more than 300 persons attending a banquet in the American Legion Post 307 Home Saturday night in honor of Trojan mentor Larry Graham's Madison High School basketball team.

Among those who paid tribute and presented awards to Coach Graham and the players were Venice Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold; State Superintendent of Education James Cronin; Dr. George Wilkins Sr., chairman of the Education Committee of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce; State Senator Sam Vadala; State Representative Joe Lucco; and guest speaker Gayle Sayers.

Sayers, former star professional football player who this year was voted into the National Football Hall of Fame and is athletic director at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, looked directly at the Trojan players seated around a table in front of the speakers' podium and said,

"Hold your heads high, athletes."

"You have experienced perhaps one of the most important happenings of your high school career. It could lead to many doors opening for you in the future."

Sayers continued his address with, "God gave me legs and a gift to perform in football."

"He gave each of you abilities to be championship basketball players, abilities which will surely enrich your lives."

Encouraging each to continue school and obtain a college education, Sayers concluded, "Reward your parents by pursuing an academic career and thank your coach and his assistants for shaping you into champions."

Flyers defeat Madison twice

Madison High School's baseball nine met two Flyer hurlers who yielded the Trojans only five hits in two contests Saturday.

The host East St. Louis Senior High School squad won both ends of a twin bill, 1-1 and 14-2. Each contest failed to go the full seven innings as the Flyers posted at least a 10-run lead in each. Flyer Greg Vaughn allowed Madison two hits — by Lloyd Williams and Brian Eaves — and a run in the fourth frame when Prince Giles walked, stole second and scored on Williams' hit.

East St. Louis tallied a run in the first, five in the third, three in the fifth and two in the sixth inning. Mike DeLoach hit a two-run homer in the third.

The Flyers capitalized on five walks, an error and two singles for six runs in the fourth inning of the second game to go with a run in the first, three in the second, two in the third and two in the fifth.

Pete Feurka tripped for Madison in the opening frame hit.

North nine sweeps at Johnston City

GCHS North's baseball nine improved its season record to nine wins against eight losses Saturday, sweeping both ends of a twinbill at Johnston City, 10-7 and 6-0.

Hurley Randy Vandergriff relieved starter Terry Page in the third inning of the first game to gain the win, allowing two hits in four innings before yielding the pitching duties to Doug Rains in the seventh.

The Steelers collected nine hits and made seven errors. They were aided by nine walks by the host hurler.

Johnston City went ahead 5-1 on two runs in the first and three in the second and then added two in the third frame.

Steelers Dan Harper drew a second-inning walk and advanced on a groundout. Rick Willard singled and a run scored on a fielder's choice.

North added two in the third when Kevin Hayes walked, Bruce Wright reached on an error and Page, Harper and Mike Simpson all walked.

A walk to Jodi Faioli started North's four-run fourth. Hayes singled, Wright walked and Page reached base after being hit with a pitch. Harper singled, Randy Vandergriff walked and a runner crossed the plate on a sacrifice fly.

Deadlocked at 7-7, the Steelers got a go-ahead run in the sixth when Wright singled, stole second, advanced on a sacrifice bunt and scored on a groundout.

Two insurance runs were scored in the seventh when Bates singled and stole second. Rains singled and both Hayes and Wright reached base on fielder's choices.

Freshman Steve Doty picked up his first win of the season in the second game of the doubleheader, fanning five batters and issuing only one walk. He was backed by seven North hits and there was one fielding error.

Collecting two hits each were Faioli, Page and Hennrich. Hayes had one hit.

Three runners reached home plate in the third inning. Jeff Hamilton singled and advanced on two consecutive sacrifice bunts.

Rains blasted a drive to deep rightfield, where the fielder dropped the ball, allowing Hamilton to score. Rains stole third and scored when the catcher overthrew the base in the attempt to retire him. Faioli singled, advanced on a balk by the pitcher and scored on Hayes' single.

In the fourth, Page singled, stole second and scampered home on a passed ball.

North added two runs in the sixth. Wright struck out but reached base when the ball got away from the catcher.

They added two in the fourth and one in the sixth.

On Friday, host Mater Dei High School of Breeze capitalized on eight Steelers errors to go with a second-inning grand-slam homer by Marvin Rickhoff to defeat visiting GCHS North 12-5 Friday in a contest called due to darkness after six innings.

The Knights tallied a run in the opening frame before tallying eight in the next inning. They added two in the fourth and one in the sixth.

North High gained three runs in the third when Faioli, Wright and Hayes all reached base on errors and Dan Harper delivered a two-run base hit.

In the fifth, Faioli walked, and advanced on a wild pitch. Wright walked. Rains reached on a fielder's choice and Harper again singled in two.

4 wins—all in a day's work for Warrior nine

Coach Conrad "Babe" Champion's Warrior nine won four games Saturday at home, upping GCHS South's season record to 17-4.

Dividing the Warrior varsity team into two separate squads, South proceeded to defeat Murphysboro twice, 3-2 and 7-4.

At the same time, on another diamond, South beat Greenville 6-2 and 7-3.

Murphysboro collected nine hits and fielded flawlessly in the opening game while gaining runs in the first and fifth frames. But Warrior hurler Jim McKee got the win with the support of seven South hits.

South tallied a run in the fifth and two in the final inning.

Singles by John Kerkovich, Dan Schaus and Larry Heagy provided the fifth-inning run.

Heavy singled in both runs in the seventh after Kerkovich and Schaus had drawn walks and Mike Linhart had reached base upon being hit by a pitched ball.

John Lakin went the distance for South in the second game in what turned into a slugfest, Murphysboro collecting 10 hits and the Warriors 14.

Lakin not only improved his personal pitching mark to 3-2, but also aided the win with a two-run homer in the third after Heagy had singled. A single by Mike Clark and a double by Tony Elliott added to South's scoring that inning, putting the hosts on top 3-0.

Singles by John Kerkovich, Tom Anderson and Heagy and doubles by Lakin and Clark provided offensive punch.

In the meantime, on the South field, Greenville collected three hits in the fifth frame off winning pitcher Paul Evans, who now has a personal mark of six wins against one loss.

The visiting Comets failed to overcome errorless fielding by South and an attack that provided four runs in the fourth and two in the fifth.

Eldon Warfield started the fourth with a walk. Evans singled, a Warrior reached base on an error which allowed a runner to score, and Steve Sedabres walked. A run scored on a single by Brian Meehan before Tom Hennrich tripled in two teammates.

In the fifth, Keith Champion and Warfield each reached base on errors. Following two wild pitches, Dave Klarich walked and a runner dashed home on a successful double steal.

Tom Mahl yielded three hits to Greenville in the second game while South High collected eight.

The Comets scored twice in the opening inning and once in the sixth while the Warriors had a run in the first, one in the third, two in the fifth and three in the sixth.

Hennrich singled in the first and was driven in by Champion's double.

In the third, Randy Smith singled and stole second. Walks to Champion and Warfield loaded the bases before a runner scored on a sacrifice fly by Evans.

Smith reached on an error in the fifth, Champion drew a walk and both stole bases before a flyball by Evans and a wild pitch enabled them to score.

Mike DeGonia, Joe Parente, Sedabres and Hennrich each hit safely in the sixth. A sacrifice fly scored one runner and a double steal provided the final Warrior run.

Assumption High School tennis players blanked the Madison Trojans 5-0 Thursday afternoon at East St. Louis.

In singles, Barry Hill lost 1-6, 1-6, Wally Rajewski 2-6, 3-6 and Don Boyer 1-6, 3-6.

Leonard Lelenewski-John Palchett lost 0-6, 0-6 in doubles and Ron Newby-Jeff Herron 0-6, 0-6.

In doubles, Papes-Jim Edmund lost 2-6, 3-6 and Jeff Hagopian-Mark Krinski won 5-7, 6-2, 6-2.

Randy Cleek, cycle racer dies in automobile crash

A winning performance by former national motorcycle racing champion Kenny Roberts of California in a recent Formula 750 World Championship road race at Imola, Italy, was clouded by tragedies which claimed the lives of seven persons, including Randy Cleek, 21, of Shawnee, Okla., 1974 short-track champion at Tri-City Speedway.

Mr. Cleek, last year's U.S. Road Racing champion, and five other persons were killed in a two-car crash near Imola shortly after the international race won by Roberts.

In the race, Pat Evans of California suffered fatal injuries when his motorcycle crashed on the 3.13-mile course.

"This has been a terrible blow to everyone who knew Randy and Pat," commented American Motorcycle Association Communications Director Dave Despain.

"The tragedies at Imola are among the saddest in the history of the sport," he added. Mr. Cleek and Evans had earlier been selected American team members for the Anglo-American match race series, a traditional Great Britain versus United States road-race series conducted in England during the Easter weekend.

Mr. Cleek is survived by his wife, Tracy, and his parents. A regular competitor here at the local speedway, Mr. Cleek began his racing career at the age of 10 and once said he was grateful that he had been injured only once in 11 years of racing. He suffered a broken collar bone while road-racing three years ago.

He voiced intentions of competing at Tri-City on May 13 in that speedway's annual spring classic event, and as often as possible during the 1977 season weekly races.

The year he claimed the Tri-City track championship (1974), he also was the nation's top short-track rider and placed 12th in national overall racing. Despain added, "The Imola racing results normally would have been cause for celebration in the United States, but shock and a deep feeling of loss among the road racing fraternity leave no room for joy."

6-week water safety class is offered at local YMCA

The Tri-Cities Area YMCA, 2001 Edison Ave., announces a six-week water safety instructor course is being offered to anyone holding a senior lifesaving certificate, starting Saturday at 2 p.m. at the YMCA swimming pool.

Donald R. Rains, YMCA program director, said the course is to be conducted six successive Saturday afternoons and a fee of $10 is required for members and $15 for non-members of the local YMCA. Additional information may be obtained from Rains at 876-7200.

Steelers blank Triad 7-0 on North diamond

Steele hurler Doug Rains yielded only two hits Thursday afternoon while going the distance as GCHS North blanked visiting Triad 7-0.

Gaining his first win of the season, Rains walked four and fanned six opposing batters while allowing the two singles. He also collected one of North's eight hits and drove in a run.

Scoring two runs in the opening frame, one in the fifth and four in the sixth, the Steelers committed one fielding error while the Knights erred twice.

Hayes batted in North's fifth-inning run with a single after Jodi Fallon connected with a two-base hit.

In the sixth, Dan Harper reached on an error and scored on Mike Simpson's triple. Bob Batey singled in a run, Jeff Hamilton hit safely and runners dashed home on two consecutive groundouts.

Oddly enough, the best shooter in basketball history was never a basketball star. Wilfred Hetzel of Melrose, Minn., was only a substitute on his high school team and never played college or pro ball, but he toured the nation for many years with basket-shooting exhibitions, scoring baskets with his eyes closed, while sitting down, and with his back to the basket... He was known as the best basketball shooter in the world—yet he was never a star on any team.

In the history of the NCAA major-college basketball tournament, only 3 teams from the Northeast have ever won the championship—and no Northeast team has won it since way back in 1954... The only Northeast teams ever to win the NCAA tourney are Holy Cross in 1947, City College of New York in 1950 and LaSalle in 1954.

Here's a surprising fact that shows how times have changed... Arnie Palmer wound up 115th on golf's money-winning list last year... 114 other golfers made more money in golf tournaments than Palmer did in 1976... Not too long ago, Palmer always finished near the top of the money-winning list year after year.

Members of the 58'ers 4-H Club opened a monthly meeting by answering roll call with the name of a project in which they are currently enrolled. They met last week in the home of Mrs. Joanna Spencer, 3204 Newell Drive, leader of the club. Ellen Range led the pledge of allegiance and the 4-H pledge was by Lisa Griffey. Birthday greetings were extended to Nita Graham and Penny Strum and new members introduced were Julia Scannell and Laura Christ. A report on the Share-The-Fun contest was presented by Ellen Range and Janet Scannell, both received A-ratings for their presentations as mistress-of-ceremonies at the event.

Gloria Milaniis reported invitations have been sent to all mothers to attend the May 5 meeting to begin at 7 p.m. at St. John United Church of Christ. Committee members who will assist for the evening are Janet Scannell, Sue and Patty Basarich, Karen Spencer, Shannon Bushue and Dina Long.

Kelly Ault and Ellen Range reviewed a community service project, to plant a tree at the Jo Meyer park at Cleveland Boulevard and Niedringhaus Avenue, at 9 a.m. April 23. Others participating in the planting will be Juli Scannell, Lisa Scannell, Wendy Sparks, Gloria Milaniis, Nancy Dimitroff, Laura and Michelle Jenness, Karen Spencer, Loretta Paschedag.

A food demonstration workshop is set for 7 p.m. Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Spencer for Nancy Dimitroff, Lisa Griffey, Gina Graham, Penny Strum, Kelly Ault, Ellen Range, Karen Spencer, Shannon Bushue, Dina Long, Susan Basarich, Janet Scannell, Tracey Johnson, Loretta Paschedag and Camie Mercer, who are enrolled in the contest on April 30. All mothers are urged to attend the workshop with their daughters.

The major program was conducted by the junior leaders, Janet Scannell, Sue Basarich, Karen Spencer and Dina Long. Food judging was practiced by members on selecting the properly prepared hard cooked eggs, raw vegetable garnishes, chocolate cake, corn bread, brownies and soft drinks.

Refreshments of cookies, brownies and soft drinks were served by Gina and Nita Graham and Dina Long to Cindy Buentle and other members previously mentioned.

Medici Family is Bay View topic

Colorful tulips and other fresh garden flowers graced the luncheon tables at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ Thursday afternoon for a meeting of the Bay View Reading Club.

Miss Bea Cooley was the hostess and members of the St. Peter Afternoon Guild served the luncheon course to 17 women.

Mrs. Herman Huxel led the pledge to the flag and club collect.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Dale Rea, president.

Mrs. Arthur Buentle, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Walter Klein, who reviewed historical facts concerning Italy's famous de Medici family.

The Medici family was widely known for its cleverness and ruthlessness in gaining and keeping political power, but also was respected for establishing Florence as a world renowned center for art and literature.

In the business session, Mrs. Huxel described a meeting at which the winner of a fund-raising project returned the $100 gift award to the club treasury.

The money will help defray the expense of a scholarship grant to enable a student attend speech camp, she said. Winner of this year's scholarship award is Robert Slate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin C. Slate Jr. of Granite City and the brother of last year's grant winner, Miss Betty Slate. It was reported the latter served as coach to her brother while preparing for the speech contest.

Mrs. Russell D. Johnson said Jerry Rhodes, head of the English Department at North High School, has agreed to permit students to participate in an annual essay contest, sponsored by the club, and to acquire a dictionary through the school library to be given as a prize.

Mrs. Alfred Krumsiek will serve as hostess at the April 28 meeting, it was announced.

Also present Thursday were Mesdames E. M. Anzures, Harold Jensen, E. A. Mueller, Arthur Roman, James Stuart and Miss Mary Frances Lynch. Miss Lily Dod and Miss Hazel Towery.

Grain reserve plan explained

Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland last week announced plans to strengthen the marketing position of grain farmers and to increase the effectiveness of the Commodity Loan Program.

"The five-part program will give farmers the needed incentives and assistance to do a better job of marketing and obtain better prices for their crops," the secretary said.

1. Establishment of a farmer-owned food grain reserve for 1976 wheat and rice crops.
2. A two-month extension — until May 31 — for farmers to participate in the loan program for 1976 wheat and rice crops.
3. Increased price-support loan rates for 1977 feed grains and soybean crops.
4. Reduction of interest rates — effective April 1, 1977 — on commodity loans from 7½ to 6 per cent, and on storage facility and drying equipment loans from 7½ to 7 per cent.

5. Increased amounts and broadened coverage for farm storage and drying equipment loans, and reduced down payment provisions.

A. Loan amount is increased from 70 per cent to 85 per cent.

B. Costs (labor and materials) for concrete work and electrical wiring may be included.

C. The interest rate is reduced from 7½ to 7 per cent and will remain in effect for the term of the loan.

The secretary said, "Changes in the facility loan program will increase storage and drying capacity, which will help meet the objectives of the food grain reserve program."

The reserve program will accomplish three other objectives, according to Bergland: it will insulate excess wheat and rice stocks from the marketplace, keep the stocks in the hand of farmers, and hold these stocks in readiness to meet U.S. consumer needs as well as export needs in the future.

Evaluation policy on 3 SIU officers

A policy to evaluate the performance of the two presidents and the general secretary of the Southern Illinois University system on a regular basis was approved Thursday by the SIU Board of Trustees, meeting at SIUE.

The policy provides: —A means by which the presidents of the Carbondale and Edwardsville campuses and the general secretary of the SIU System may review their own successes and failures with board members.

—A procedure to establish new, short and long-term goals for the ensuing months and years.

—An opportunity to receive comments and ideas from board members and others as to possible ways in which the management and planning functions of the system and the institutions might be improved.

The general secretary and presidents will submit annual goals statements to the board by Oct. 30 of each year, and an annual review of the performance of the three officers will be conducted by the board during June or such other time as the chairman of the board designates.

Every five years, the performance of the three officers will be reviewed and evaluated in depth by an ad hoc committee of board members appointed by the board chairman, who also will name the chairman of the committee.

Various campus constituency heads will be asked to aid in coordination of campus involvement in the evaluations. An opportunity to meet with the ad hoc committee will be provided to all interested members of the university communities, according to the stipulations of the policy resolution.

Pilgrimage at Galena

Historic Galena, Ill., will again be the setting for the 23rd annual U.S. Grant scout pilgrimage April 22-23-24. Main Street will reverberate to thousands of marching feet as scouts parade in uniformed units at 2 p.m. Saturday, flags flying and bands playing.

One of the bands will be the Championship Western Dubuque Band which participated in the inaugural parade in Washington, D.C., this January.

A feature of this year's pilgrimage will be a special tour of Galena's seven churches, all over a century old. A unique patch depicting praying hands, surrounded by individual smaller patches, will be awarded to those who participate in honoring Galena's religious heritage.

In addition, cubs, scouts and explorers from 12 states will visit many historical sights and museums, taking part in varied events and camping in the surrounding area — rain or shine.

The Galena community each year expands from its normal population of 3,900 to over 10,000 as the enthusiastic young people take over for a weekend of fun, competition and scout activities.

A WORD TO THE ENERGY-WISE ABOUT LAUNDRY

Could it be that some old laundry habits are wasting therms and watts?

New products and new methods can save energy in your home laundry. Cold water washing or rinsing for certain fabrics can be a real energy-saver. Pre-soaking of heavily-soiled items can save water and electricity. Adjust the wash cycle to the type of items you are laundering: some fabrics need only a short cycle. Break the habit (and your teenager's habit) of doing small loads. Full loads conserve energy and water. When replacing a washer, look for equipment that gives you the flexibility to adjust wash cycles. And the automatic pre-soak cycle is a feature that can save time and energy by eliminating the second wash of heavily soiled fabrics. In choosing a new dryer, a model with extra insulation in the cabinet is a good investment. Laundering accounts for a sizable part of your home energy use. So a change of habits that saves energy is a change for the better. For a full list of home laundry conservation tips, ask at our office.

Mrs. Pauline Canham, 2662 Benton St., entertained the July 12 Card Club, Thursday afternoon. She served a noon luncheon and used an orchid basket filled with fresh flowers as the table centerpiece, which was created by her daughter, Peggy Tucker.

Those winning prizes in the pinocle games were Madeline Penny Ouseley, first; Mabel Lehn, second; the hostess third; Nora Williams, a guest fourth and consolation to Kathryn Smithson.

Also present was Mrs. Ann Giese and another guest, Mrs. Marvel Clover. The next meeting will be at Sonny and Char's Restaurant, Collinsville.

The Progressive Class of the Second Baptist Church was held in a meeting last week by Mrs. Elsie Sturdivant, 2520 Parkway Drive.

Mrs. Mina Duggins gave the opening prayer with the class singing "Beautiful Garden of Prayer." Mrs. Melva Roberts presented the secretary's report, with each member responding with a Bible verse. Mrs. Duggins dismissed the meeting with a prayer for the ill.

Cloverview reviews springtime events

Invitations to spring events of various organizations occupied the attention of Cloverview Garden Club members, who met last week with Mrs. Robert McCauley, 2455 Lynch Ave.

Mrs. John Jenkins, vice-president, was in charge of the business session.

Mrs. George Knapp led the club collect, preceding a 12:30 p.m. dessert luncheon.

Special attention was given to plans for Cloverview's next program and meeting, scheduled Tuesday, May 10, at the Nameoki Recreation Center, Amos and Franklin avenues, when Miss Vicky Parks of the East-West Gateway Council will speak on "Water Quality."

Mrs. Jenkins said a potluck dinner will be served at the noon hour, followed by the guest speaker. Members of the Garden Study Club have been invited to hear the special program.

An invitation also was read from the Edwardsville Garden Club, concerning its annual "Rose Luncheon," set 12:30 p.m., June 2, at the Edwardsville Moose Lodge.

Attendance at the 8th annual Iris Show, sponsored by the Southern Illinois Iris Society at St. Clair Square, Fairview Heights, from 12:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday, May 15, was discussed. The public is invited to view the show without charge, Mrs. Jenkins said.

Mrs. Fred Orr said the Cloverview Club will be responsible for watering new plantings along the Madison County Nature and Bicycle Trail during the months of May,

July and September. Local gardening groups are alternating monthly watering chores to help keep the plantings healthy during the summer months, she explained.

Details of the home tour and arts and crafts show, to be presented Sunday, May 18, by the Downtown Granite City Restoration Society, were heard.

It was announced the craft show will be staged along the 24th Street boulevard median strip, between Cleveland and Delmar.

The event will afford area artisans an opportunity to display and sell their craftwork and give the public a chance to become acquainted with the artists themselves, club members were advised.

Also attending last week's meeting were Mesdames Richard Branding, John Lentz, Charles Gandoria, Kenneth Brokaw and James Himmeight.

New programs for seniors reviewed

Mrs. Nancy Silvers, director of a nutrition program in East St. Louis, was the guest speaker last week at the April meeting of the American Association of Retired Persons at Coolidge Junior High School.

Mrs. Silvers, who was accompanied by Mrs. Carol Earls, reviewed the numerous programs and services available to senior citizens.

She noted that many senior residents are unaware of new services and their availability, such as health, legal assistance, budget programming and nursing care at home, among others.

Slides were shown by the guests, detailing many of the projects.

Mrs. Elina Hoover, president, opened the meeting with The Lord's Prayer and led the pledge to the flag.

A news release from Illinois Governor James R. Thompson said a bill being considered would place the Department of Aging under the welfare department's jurisdiction.

Members against reassigning the Department of Aging were asked to write the governor and express their views.

Instead of a "rock-a-bon" as previously planned, the chapter elected to make a direct donation to the Crippled Children's fund.

Officers and several board members are expected to attend a workshop today at Fisher's Restaurant in Belleville. Mrs. Hoover said. Lunch will cost $5 per person.

The chapter will hold a dinner-dance instead of a formal meeting in May. The final day that tickets will be sold for the event is May 7. Mrs. Hoover reminded members, adding that none will be available at the door.

The June meeting date has been changed to June 14 at the VFW Hall, 2044 Washington Ave., when a magician will entertain.

Trailer backs into car

Three young Venice women were shaken and one young man was injured when a tractor-trailer backed into their stopped car on Route 203 near Route 162 Thursday.

The driver of the tractor-trailer, Wesley Steed Sr., Edwardsville, told Illinois state troopers he was unable to complete a turn due to a concrete divider and was backing up to try the turn again when he backed into the auto.

Carl Turner, 21, of 1211 Logan St., Venice, a passenger in the car, bumped his right arm, which was x-rayed at St. Elizabeth Hospital before he was released.

Shaken, but not injured, were the driver of the car, Yolanda Washington, 19, of 1111 College St., Venice, and two other passengers, Veronica Lewis, 20, of 159 Viola Jones Homes, Venice, and Miss Lorraine Turner, 23, of 1221 Logan St., Venice.

Broadview remodeling

Approval of a project of capital improvements to the Broadview Hotel at the East St. Louis Center of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville was granted Thursday by the SIU Board of Trustees.

The project will include partial remodeling of the first, third and seventh floors and repair of the existing elevator in the building.

The work will be funded by general revenue funds which are part of the fiscal year 1977 capital appropriations for SIU. A total of $193,100 was authorized for the project by the legislature.

University officers said the governor has been requested to approve a partial release of $50,000 of the appropriated amount, providing funds for repairing and refurbishing the existing elevator in the center and for architectural services for the entire project.

Other improvements are to include installation of shower, locker and dressing room facilities on the seventh floor; remodeling of the third floor to provide a student lounge area, student office, study and meeting areas; and installation of a science program wet laboratory facility on the first floor.

Renovations to the third floor also will permit space on the first floor, previously utilized for a lounge area, to be used for additional library services. The board resolution approved Thursday authorizes retention of the firm of Jan Peterson Associates, St. Louis, to provide architectural services.

University officers said the Peterson firm has been involved in planning previous projects at the East St. Louis center and is familiar with the facilities to be remodeled.

Urges support of new public smoking law

The Illinois Lung Association is urging citizens to continue their support of H.B. 166, a new public smoking law, now under consideration by the Illinois legislature.

The new bill will establish non-smoking areas in designated public places such as theaters, elevators, museums, libraries, hospitals and buses.

Providing backing for the bill, which was introduced by Rep. Ronald Griesheimer, is the Illinois Interagency Council on Smoking and Disease of which the Illinois Lung Association is a member.

The bill passed the Human Resources Committee of the state legislature (4-2) and the Illinois House. The bill, presently in the Senate and facing a vote by that body, has been assigned to the Public Health, Welfare and Corrections Committee for study.

Frank D. Savickas, (D-Chicago) sponsored the bill in the House; Senator Frederick J. Smith (D-Chicago) is sponsoring the bill in the Senate.

"With this bill we're seeking to protect the public's right to breathe clean air," said Ben D. Kinnigham, executive director of Illinois Lung Association. "Smoke coming from the end of a burning cigarette affects all people in a room and is a form of pollution that shouldn't be imposed on those who don't smoke."

Approximately 24 million Americans are sensitive or allergic to one or more of the toxic elements in cigarette smoke according to Kinnigham. In extreme cases, he said, serious health problems such as asthma attacks may be caused by irritating smoke.

"In view of the health consequences of smoking and the fact that at the present time non-smokers in the general population outnumber smokers by three to one, it appears that this new law to provide smoke-free areas in public places is legitimate and demands favorable consideration by the legislature," Kinnigham concluded.

Vote for a progressive administration that has brought outstanding accomplishments to the City of Madison. There are many more to come but we must have a full team to work effectively. We appreciate your marking an  in the circle for the BETTER GOVERNMENT PARTY so that Madison will continue to progress.

- The only City in the State of Illinois that has blacktopped all of its streets.
- The only City in the State of Illinois that is blacktopping all of its alleys.
- The only City in Illinois that has installed burglar alarm systems in every business, school, and church that has requested one.
- Every senior citizen in the City of Madison who has requested one, has had a burglar alarm system installed free of charge and will be provided with free maintenance.
- Two industries are now under construction — one in our industrial park and one adjacent to it. This is a fact, not fiction!
- Out of 2000 homes in the City of Madison there are only 21 for sale signs. This figures out to only 1%. Compare that with other cities in our area and state.
- There are only three buildings out of 167 businesses that are vacant in our City. Remarkable, isn't it?
- People are investing in their homes and businesses in the City of Madison!

Deadline set for enrollment

The final date to enroll new students in St. Mary-St. Mark School for the 1977-78 school year is Saturday, April 30, it was announced Friday. Those planning to register their children have been advised to call 451-9693 or 877-8203 to make an appointment. Appointments should be made as soon as possible as no registrations will be taken after the April 30 date, school officials said.

County board to act on zoning pleas

The Madison County Board, meeting at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in the Madison County Courthouse at Edwardsville, will be asked to approve a special use permit and variance for construction of a garage and to deny a variance for a carport, all in Nameoki Township.

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals is recommending that the county board deny a request from Doris Morrison for a variance to construct a carport onto her home at 4610 D'Lynn Drive in Northland Estates subdivision, an R-3 single-family residential district.

The variance is needed since the carport would come within three feet of the side property line while the county zoning ordinance requires a minimum of 8 feet.

The zoning board is recommending that a special use permit be granted to Doana Schneidewind to construct a pole building for a garage at 3112 Princeton in State Park Place, and that she be granted a variance to construct the garage within two feet of the side lot line, rather than the required five feet in the R-14 single-family residential district.

SERVICES RECOGNIZED. A plaque of appreciation for services to Madison School District during his first three years in office is presented Thursday night to Frank Eaves, fourth from left, beginning his second three-year term. Madison Community School District 12 board members

$173 tuition per quarter at SIUE

Formal implementation of the tuition increases adopted by the Southern Illinois University Board of Trustees on March 10 was approved by the board at a meeting here Thursday.

The resolution adopted indicates the effective date of the new tuition rates and specifies the rates to be charged to undergraduate, graduate, dental and medical students enrolled for full-time and less than full-time course loads.

The board also updated the tuition rate differential between in-state and out-of-state students.

At the Edwardsville campus, tuition for full-time Illinois students and from $143 to $183 per quarter for undergraduate students goes from $143 to $173 per quarter for graduate students, effective in the fall quarter.

For out-of-state students, the rates will go from $429 to $519 for undergraduate students and from $429 to $559 for graduate students.

Tuition for students attending the School of Dental Medicine will be $323 per quarter, effective July 1.

At the Carbondale campus, tuition for full-time resident students will be increased from $214 to $282 per semester, and for non-residents from $642 to $786 per semester, effective in the fall semester.

Tuition for students enrolled in the School of Medicine will be $364 per semester, also effective this fall.

Ozone advisory here

An ozone advisory was issued Thursday by the Division of Air Pollution, Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), in this portion of the Illinois metropolitan area.

The advisory is expected to remain in effect until the warm air pressure system moves, according to Jim Maloney, public relations officer for the division.

The prospect of thunderstorms here, predicted by the National Weather Service, is being carefully watched by the state EPA. Such showers could disperse the ozone, he said.

The ozone advisory, which covers the entire state of Illinois, was issued when the concentration of air pollution reached the stage that persons with heart and respiratory ailments could be affected. These persons are advised to remain indoors, if possible, and away from heavy vehicular traffic areas.

During the weekend, Chicago had the heaviest ozone readings within the state, with the Granite City, Alton, Wood River, East St. Louis area having the second highest concentration, Maloney said.

Three-year Smith pacts

The last of three three-year agreements affecting workers at the A. O. Smith Corporation's Granite City auto frame plant has been completed.

Members of International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 309 on Friday night ratified terms of a tentative pact.

Earlier this spring, new three-year contracts were signed with Auto Workers and Machinists at the frame plant. George Corbin, Local 309 business representative, said there are similarities between the three agreements, but that there were many changes in contract working. He said pay has been increased and fringe benefits have been improved.

A Smith spokesman said 54 electricians at the plant have received a substantial wage increase and that a full cost-of-living program has been provided in the new contract. Provisions have been made for improvements in such categories as vacations, holidays, group insurance and pensions, the spokesman added.

Where to vote on Tuesday

Voters in the Quad-City area will return to the polls tomorrow for the third time in two weeks to select Granite City park commissioners, city officials in Madison and Venice, and village officials in Ponton Beach.

The precincts for the Granite City Park District election will be the same as those used in the last two park elections and voters will cast their ballots at one of three locations.

Precinct One polling place will be at the Lincoln Place Community Center, 822 Niedringhaus Ave. Precinct One includes all of the park district west of the railroad tracks between downtown and West Granite City, including West Granite City and North Granite City. Excluded from Precinct One is the Barcliff subdivision and homes north of Ponton Road.

Precinct Two ballots will be cast at the Wilson Park Ice rink in Wilson Park. Precinct Two includes all of the city between the railroad tracks and Nameoki Road.

Precinct Three polling place will be the Nameoki Recreation Center at Richmond and Amos avenues. Precinct Three includes the Barcliff subdivision, all homes in the district north of Ponton Road, and all homes in the park district east of Nameoki Road.

Park officials warned that all homes in Granite City are not automatically in the park district and some newly-annexed homes in the city might not yet be in the park district.

Questions on polling places may be directed to the staff of the Wilson Park office, 877-3059, or to Park Board Secretary Frank Rea at 876-6414.

Madison voters will cast ballots at five polling places. First Ward polls will be at the Madison Volunteer Fire Department, 1527 Third St., and Second Ward residents will vote at the Madison Public Library, 1700 Fifth St.

Madison Third Ward polling place is Madison Memorial Center, Seventh Street and Lee Avenue; Fourth Ward voting will take place at Trinity Hall, 1245 Madison Ave., and the Fifth Ward residents will vote at the West Madison Memorial Center, 900 W. Washington St.

Venice voters will use four polling places. Ward One will vote at the Odd Fellows Hall, Second and Granite streets; Ward Two polling place is St. Mark's Church basement, Sixth Street and Lincoln Avenue; Third Ward residents will vote at 1101 Logan Street, and the Fourth Ward polling place will be at 109 Weaver St.

Only one polling place will be used in the Ponton Beach village election as all ballots will be cast at the Long Lake Firemen's Hall, 4113 Ponton Road.

Apply now for aid at college

Illinois residents who plan to enroll in college next fall are being encouraged to apply for various sources of financial aid now.

All college-bound residents may apply for a monetary award of up to $1,550 per year (applicable only toward tuition and fees for undergraduate study at any of the more than 180 approved public or private colleges, universities or hospital schools of nursing in the state).

This program is administered by the Illinois State Scholarship Commission and has a primary eligibility criterion of financial need for college.

Those who wish to determine their eligibility are requested to apply before Oct. 1, 1977, but early application will allow the student to make better planning for college expenses.

Last year, over 155,000 students applied for the monetary award by Sept. 7. At that point, all funds had been committed to eligible students. Another 9,000 applications were received after Sept. 7 but could not be considered for eligibility.

According to Sheila Pruden of the State Scholarship Commission's Springfield office, 3,748 of those applicants eligible for consideration last year were from the Alton-Edwardsville-Granite City area, and this reflects a decrease from the previous year, when 3,925 students from this region applied.

Another program for Illinois residents is the basic grant program, which can be used at approved colleges and universities and at vocational and technical schools. Students may be eligible for both the basic grant and the monetary award, and are advised to apply for both.

There is no application fee and students need not have applied or been accepted yet at a college to apply for either program.

For more information and applications, students may see high school counselors or college counselors, or write: Illinois State Scholarship Commission, 525 Jefferson - GL 10, Springfield, Ill. 62702.

Stray dogs on increase

A daily increase in the number of dog bites and numerous complaints from citizens and mail carriers in the community about dogs running loose without muzzles are two serious problems facing the Granite City Humane Department.

Humane Officer Andy Chiappa said today the department is requesting pet owners in Granite City to take the necessary steps to comply with City Ordinance 3169, dated Jan. 14, 1975.

John Bukovac, 69, succumbs

Funeral services were held Saturday for John Bukovac, 69, of Washington Park, Ill., formerly of Granite City, whose son and a brother reside here.

Mr. Bukovac died at 7 a.m. Thursday at Firmin Desloge-St. Louis University Hospital, St. Louis, following surgery. He had been ill 12 years and was hospitalized only seven hours.

A retired construction carpenter, Mr. Bukovac was a member of Carpenters District Council 633 of Madison County and vicinity.

He formerly owned and operated a tavern and an ice cream stand in the Granite City area.

Mr. Bukovac was born in Madison and lived in Granite City until moving to Washington Park 28 years ago.

He was a member of St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church in Washington Park and the Holy Name Society.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Rose M. Bukovac; one son, John B. Bukovac of Granite City; two brothers, Andrew Bukovac of Granite City and

The ordinance requires owners to confine their pets, or have them on a leash, Chiappa said.

"There has been an upswing in the number of dog bites on a daily basis, and the department is receiving many complaints from residents and mail carriers throughout the city," the humane officer stated.

Complaints note that dogs are running loose without muzzles and there are many stray dogs without tags or collars disturbing people with their barking and trespassing, he said.

Chiappa reported it has become necessary for the humane department to have two of its four officers start work earlier in the morning to pick up strays and loose animals within the city boundaries.

Two officers also are remaining on duty later in the evening hours, he added.

In order to protect the children and all other citizens from being bitten while walking or riding a bicycle in public areas, pet owners must either confine their pets or have them on a leash, Chiappa stated.

"Furthermore," the officer said, "we are requesting that all pet owners have their animals inoculated against rabies."

"Some pet owners take good care of their pets with proper fencing, but others are neglecting their responsibilities," Chiappa said.

Three pets only are allowed under Article XI 17-1100, the humane officer reported.

Chiappa may be reached by telephone at 876-6903, between the hours of 7 a.m. and 5 p.m., or by calling the Granite City police station at 877-6111, after 5 p.m.

Madison Mayor Sasyk, Venice Mayor Ebersold endorsed along with GC Park Commissioners Gabriel and Loman

As in the case of elections held here April 5 and 9, voters in four governmental districts will have the opportunity and duty to participate tomorrow in balloting on candidates for local-level public offices.

There is no opposition in the Village of Pontoon Beach, where three present village board members are running for new four-year terms.

In the Granite City Park District, Commissioners Henry Gabriel and Barry Loman are among three candidates for two six-year terms on the Park Board.

Due to their long service on the five-member board, Gabriel and Loman deserve much of the credit for the park system's diverse, well-managed park and recreational programs.

Unopposed in the City of Venice are effective and diligent Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold and five other members of his ticket.

Third Ward competition pairs a ten-year City Council member, John Ervin, against a resident active in community service work, Mrs. Helen Ruth King.

There is no opposition in the City of Madison for veteran City Clerk John Belloff or for incumbent aldermen in Wards One, Four and Five and for Thomas Gordon in Ward Three.

Frank Dutko, retiring police chief, is recommended in Ward Two.

Mayor Mike Sasyk and City Treasurer Hilbert Hoekstra are recommended on the basis of their successful experience in city administration.

The mayor is one of the hardest-working and most knowledgeable municipal leaders in this region, and Madison continues to enjoy an unusually wide range of city services and improvements.

County is hoping to avoid multiplier by ordering multipliers in 20 of 24 townships; including Chouteau, Granite City

The good news regarding assessed valuation is that a state-set maximum County assessment multiplier apparently can be avoided, despite the fact that a tentative multiplier of 1.0503 has been announced.

The bad news in many townships is a substantial county-set township multiplier.

The Board of Review announced its decision Friday as the only action it knew of that could avoid a countywide multiplier.

In the Quad-City area, Granite City Township has been given a 1.5 multiplier and Chouteau Township lands and land improvements 1.15. Venice and Nameoki Townships have no multipliers, since they are judged to be above the required assessment level.

Initial township decisions besides Granite City were 1.10 designations for Edwardsville and Wood River.

Now, 1.15 multipliers have been set for Chouteau, Godfrey and Foster lands and land improvements and for the townships of

More, Fort Russell, Leef, Saline, Helvetia, New Douglas, St. Jacob, Marine, Alhambra, Olive, Jarvis, Pin Oak, Omphigant and Hamel.

The remaining four townships, Alton, Collinsville, Venice and Nameoki, will be left without multipliers.

The record board had been seeking to add $48 million to the countywide valuation; $20 million was achieved in Granite City, Wood River and Edwardsville, and another $27 million with the series of 1.15 multipliers.

What has happened here and elsewhere in the mid-1970s is a sharp rise in property values as reflected by sales prices.

The multiplication process will expand the tax base a welcome change from the viewpoint of hard-pressed governmental agencies — but unwelcome to those whose homes or businesses are fully assessed but who will be affected by township-wide orders anyway.

$50,000 suit filed due to sewer backup

Suit for $50,000 damages and a plea for an injunction were filed in St. Louis County Circuit Court to prohibit Archer Daniels Midland from pumping waste from its soybean processing plant on Gargill Road through a sanitary sewer line was filed in circuit court at Edwardsville last week.

The suit, filed in behalf of Gene and Silvia M. White, 2618 Whippoorwill Lane, is directed against the city of Granite City and Archer Daniels Midland.

The complaint alleges that the home of the plaintiffs is connected to a sanitary sewer line that also serves the ADM plant. The sewer line runs to a lift station near the White home.

The plaintiffs allege that the ADM plant forces the discharge of a "heated oily liquid" into the sewer line "with such force that it backs up into the house, in connection of the plaintiffs, causing flooding and extensive damage to their residence on numerous occasions."

Sewage from the plant also causes the lift station to malfunction, causing it to "back up into the sewer line of the plaintiffs and into their home."

The bill alleges that the plaintiffs have requested the city and ADM to correct the problem, but that nothing has yet been done.

City officials and ADM representatives recently reached agreement on plans to correct the sewer backup and a contract was awarded by the city a week ago to replace the lift station.

Venice mayor is unopposed on Tuesday

A Venice city official for the past 23 years, William "Mike" Ebersold, 66, is unopposed tomorrow for reelection as mayor.

Initially appointed as city clerk in 1954—succeeding the late Walter R. Cavender—Ebersold served for four years before that on the Venice Park Board, Ebersold won election as clerk in 1957, 1961, 1965, 1969 and 1973.

Following the death of Mayor John E. Lee Jr. in November 1973, Ebersold was elected as mayor for the remainder of that term in April 1974.

He served as a trustee of the former East Side Levee and Sanitary District for 12 years and was its president for several years.

A retired Terminal Railroad Association switchman, he is a member of the First Methodist Church of Venice, a 36-year member of Masonic Temple Lodge 835 and a member of the Tri-City Shrine Club, Ainal Temple, Scottish Rite and Venice Social Club.

Longtime president of the Venice City Organization and of the Venice Children's Hospital, Ebersold also has been an officer of the Venice Homecoming and Memorial Association.

His memberships include Venice Odd Fellows Lodge 719 (for 37 years), Venice Lions, Venice Lake Rod and Gun Club, Terminal Compask Club, East Side Terminal Credit Union and Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission.

He has been chairman of the Terminal Madison Yard Redevelopment, a member of the Illinois Rivers and Harbors Association and president of Parkway Trainers' Local 469.

He and his wife, Irene, are the parents of Mrs. Jean Stoff, Neil Ebersold and James Ebersold and there are a number of grandchildren.

A native and lifelong resident of Venice, Ebersold resides at 804 Third St.

The mayor was a railroad employe for more than 45 years. During his tenure as mayor, a major city hall expansion was completed, along with relocation of Broadway into an underpass that eliminates one-grade railroad-auto crossings. Current interests include the scheduled completion of the Great River Road segment intersecting with Broadway, Main Street and the McKinley Bridge approach.

He devoted full time to the office of mayor.

Ebersold comments, "My record and actions always have been aimed at helping the people and the city of Venice, and I have run on this record. I consider it an honor to serve the people as mayor."

The other drivers, Bruce Mort, 1713 Garfield Ave., and James Griffin, 2402 Cleveland Blvd., escaped injury.

Hamilton was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for an abrasion and pain to his left elbow. X-rays were taken and he was released.

New airport is called vital link in area's transportation planning

St. Louis Metropolitan Area Airport Authority staff report, April 13 by Arven H. Saunders, executive director, on "Transportation Secretary Brock Adams' temporary decision and next steps toward a new St. Louis airport at the site of the old Lambert International Airport."

Rarely does the State Senate of Illinois unanimously adopt a resolution urging the President of the United States and other appropriate federal officials to review and reconsider any decision, but on April 6, 1977, the Illinois Senate took such action with respect to the new St. Louis regional airport project at Columbia-Waterloo, Ill.

The resolution was sponsored by Senator Sam Vadalabene of Edwardsville.

Copies of the resolution have been sent not only to President Carter, but to Transportation Secretary Adams and members of the Illinois Congressional delegation in Washington.

In part, the resolution says that: "The sudden decision of the federal authorities to halt planning and land acquisition has darkened, if not devastated, hope for a new era of bi-state growth, cooperation and economic upsurge jointly benefiting the citizens of Illinois and Missouri."

The proposed airport was not simply an isolated project, but a vital component in the orderly development of a major transportation plan for the future."

There really is but one option, and that is to build the airport and adjoining parts of both Missouri and Illinois depend on it.

That one option is the absolute urgency of preserving the Columbia-Waterloo site for the new St. Louis regional airport.

For more than five years the metropolitan area — to even its local long-term detriment — has worked ruthlessly to rip a priceless economic asset away from itself and Southwestern Illinois.

There can be no mistake about the true long-range regional importance to Missouri of the Columbia-Waterloo site. Some of the prominent Missouri voices now trying to dislodge the Columbia-Waterloo site from its site are enthusiastically when it was announced.

They, and we, should never forget that the site was first identified as best in a study by the City of St. Louis Airport Commission, composed of members of St. Louis' most dedicated and respected city leaders.

It was Missouri — not Illinois — that began the move for Columbia-Waterloo. It was an act of wisdom that Illinois must now carry forward to a successful conclusion.

It is obvious that the Missouri plan has absolutely nothing to do with two-state cooperation in keeping Lambert for the long term. Missouri's fundamental objective is to kill Columbia-Waterloo and thus clear the way for the selection of the Cedar Hill or Foristell site in Missouri.

Hence, and of the "Lambert" fence, proponents who force their position on their personal convenience, and close proximity to Lambert, should recognize that if the Missouri position prevails, they will have to drive even farther to the new airport.

And this is to say nothing about the disastrous effect on the City of St. Louis if a new airport is built as far as 50 miles from downtown.

To accept Secretary Adams' halting of federal funding "at the present time," as killing Columbia-Waterloo — or, worse, to cooperate with the dominant Missouri group in the transportation planning — would be to doom Southwestern Illinois to a most dismal future.

It should be forever branded as a second-class part of the metropolitan St. Louis area — a district to be completely subservient to narrow interests on the Missouri side.

The economic consequences go without saying. The impediments to future leadership and initiative are even more foreboding.

The short consensus statement of State Representative Harold D. Byers, passed by 26 Illinois senators and representatives, various mayors, commissioners and other public officials at a meeting in Collinsville on April 2, highlights this point:

"The decision of Secretary Adams leaves the Illinois part of the Columbia-Waterloo area as a land without a country."

Paraphrasing, Rep. Byers is recognized as the Illinois Secretary of Air Lines, which handles the second heaviest passenger volume at Lambert, had a strike which caused a complete shutoff of Ozark's scheduled operations from April 19, 1973, until July 5, 1973, then currently projected.

Moreover, as the Ozark Air Lines annual report stated, their traffic was sluggish for the two quarters following the strike and only during the final quarter of 1973 overcame the effects of the strike.

No wonder 1973 showed abnormally low delays at Lambert.

Even taking all of the Missouri contentions at face value, the most that can be said for such a position is that Lambert might remain viable if new technology comes to the rescue; if a program of noise reduction successfully is undertaken; if general aviation, presumably including McDonnell Douglas and possibly the Missouri National Guard, are forced away from Lambert by quotas, surcharges and other measures; if a costly, short-lived expansion program of $150 million to $300 million is undertaken; and if future air carrier operation do not grow more than currently projected.

Despite Missouri assertions to the contrary, this will be a hazardous course of action for the entire region.

We must be determined to continue to support our valid and responsible application for a new airport for St. Louis — the only such application to grow out of 25 years of airport site controversy and speculation as to whether Lambert can be patched up enough to prevent serious deterioration of the region's air service.

Therefore, in my opinion, the Authority should take all steps to protect the validity of its application and its environmental impact statement by aggressively opposing any Lambert improvements that are contrary to environmental and other measures; if a costly, short-lived expansion program of $150 million to $300 million is acquire the Columbia-Waterloo site at the least possible cost to Illinois taxpayers and the federal government, consistent with fair compensation to the present owners.

The statement by former Transportation Secretary William Coleman following Secretary Adams' reversal, after a Federal District Court had upheld it, is most significant: "It's disturbing. I don't hope it doesn't lead to a tragedy like they just had in the Canary Islands."

"You have to consider the tremendous traffic congestion, the hills, the location of McDonnell Douglas. It's just not possible to make Lambert a first-rate airport beyond 1995."

The merits and facts of the case have not changed.

Lambert is still a limited, inadequate land-locked airport, with no hope of meaningful capacity expansion.

Columbia-Waterloo is still the best and only replacement site

Disappointed by egg hunt's early start

To the Editor:

How delighted we were to find that the merchants of our city had organized an Easter egg hunt for children aged three to ten's.

Since our children both fall within that grouping, it meant that each would be an eager participant in the annual event.

For several years our son has enjoyed the annual hunt sponsored by the Granite City Park District. Being all of seven years old this year, he feared his old age would put him on the sidelines.

The Press-Record announces yet another hunt and we prepare with great anticipation. Baskets are dusted off and lowered gingerly from the attic. The big event will be Saturday at 1 p.m.

We convinced Daddy that he must drive so parking will not be a problem. We call Grandma to join in the fun. We park stakingly arrive at just the time to depart. We arrive at 12:50 p.m.

But, what's this? There are children already counting the eggs they've collected. There are egg hunters to be had. The man in the plaid jacket is handing out prizes. How can this be? It is not yet 1 o'clock. The friendly policeman tells us they've started too early. The man in the striped shirt — we think he is in charge — says we are mistaken.

The clock says it is now just 12:56 p.m. Mothers are shouting. Children are in tears, empty-handed.

We leave. The great event has passed us by.

Why? Who will answer that question? What will next year promise?

Victors will represent all of township

To the Editor:

I think it is time that the "Says victors lack support in Mitchell" writer waxes up. I was infuriated after reading his editorial in the April 11 issue of the Press-Record.

He should get his facts straight before he writes. He should get the facts straight before he writes. He should get the facts straight before he writes.

The people of South Roxana and Hartford are residents of Chouteau Township and from all over the township. Taxes just like the people from Mitchell.

As Chouteau Township residents, they are concerned that their tax dollars are spent in the best interest of all Chouteau citizens.

On April 5, Chouteau

Township residents went to the polls and displayed the confidence and faith they have in Walter Sparks by re-electing him as supervisor.

Walter Sparks has been an excellent supervisor for the entire township in the past, and I am confident he will continue in this tradition.

The letter writer said that the people of South Roxana and Hartford are not interested in township-Mitchell included — displayed their disapproval of James Estes' mismanagement of roads, lack of maintenance of township roads, and habitual indebtedness by electing "Budd" Oberhart as their new highway commissioner.

Even though I was not chosen to serve the citizens on the City Council, I feel we should all work together to make our city a better place in which to raise our children.

Favors programs for young people

To the Editor:

On Tuesday, April 19, there will be a Park Board election. This election draws very little attention because most people don't think it's important. I disagree, because we have many young people who are looking for something to do, something to occupy their time.

If we ignore these young people, then I feel we are making a grave mistake.

A very good friend of mine, Jeff Worthen, is a candidate for the Park Board. His father is Paul "Mike" Worthen.

His grandfather is Milton Worthen, who served as a park board member some 50 years.

Jeff feels strongly that there should be more programs to get young people in Granite City more involved, particularly the age group between 15 and 19 years.

He is sincere, honest and will do the best he can for the city. This is an election where you rely on your friends, their votes and volunteers to get people to the polls to vote.

I would wish that all these people vote and give their support to Jeff Worthen Tuesday.

Madison mayor is helpful to all ages

To the Editor:

To all the citizens of Madison, the mayor's election is on Tuesday, April 19. There should be one choice, and that is to re-elect Mayor Mike Sasyk, a born leader and a man for all seasons. The best we have ever had in a mayor. Don't let idle gossip mislead you.

Thank God for good people like Mayor Mike Sasyk.

50-YEAR MADISONIAN

You know that what you have heard is the best we have ever had in a mayor. Don't let idle gossip mislead you.

Thank God for good people like Mayor Mike Sasyk.

50-YEAR MADISONIAN

Sees similarity to Chicago politics

To the Editor:

As a seasoned citizen, I'd like to know how a city the size of Madison can be sewed up so tight.

Why are the people afraid of what they are seeing?

threatened? Why don't they have the right to say what they feel?

Sounds like another Chicago to me.

Is the City being run by an administration like that which the late Mayor David headed? The hold, citizens of Madison, and take a good look around you. Do you really like what you see?

NAUM RISKOVSKY

Loose talk about news curbs

Editor & Publisher magazine — President Carter wisely explained he "has no desire to seek legislation or to otherwise impose a solution" for the difficult problem confronting the news media in the coverage of terrorist activities.

We think he should have been more specific and emphatic, stating that he would not and could not seek legislation which would infringe on the First Amendment.

President Carter's statement was prompted by the ill-conceived comment of Andrew Young, U.S. Secretary of the UN, who told a West Coast conference after the Hanafi Moslem siege in Washington: "The First Amendment has got to be clarified by the Supreme Court in the light of the power of the mass media."

We are not concerned with what position the Supreme Court would take if it were asked to "clarify" this issue. It has consistently ruled against censorship and against prior restraint on publication.

What does concern us is that people in such high office should have so little knowledge of the fact and talk so loosely about imposing restraints on the press.

This does not minimize, however, the severe problems facing media in reporting terrorist activities.

Political terrorists have been using the newspapers, radio and television for their own purposes for many years. No one is more aware of this than editors. They have been confronted with the dilemma of covering the news of terrorists, which they must do or have run rampant, to inform the American people without inflaming the terrorists or endangering hostages.

In many cases, to protect the lives of hostages they have complied with demands of terrorists to publish their statements and manifests.

With few exceptions, the press deserves high marks for its handling of terrorist news.
